"On the above statement I have made wide research but have been unable to identify these people. As no doubt you know, the clergy of that time had almost all of them an academic education, but there is no JOHN CORDELL to be found at Oxford, Cambridge, Eton, Harrow, Winchester, Dublin, or the big London schools. No reference in a large number of Wiltshire lists and indexes searched for the CORDELL name, and I have searched the period 1700-1750 in all local Wiltshire Probate Courts without finding a single CORDELL-- I fail to trace any CORDELL in Clergy Lists of the period---".

"I will give you a copy of the letter my sister (Nannie Stevens) wrote Dr. Eugene Cordell in 1895-Letter' My great grandmother's name was Judith Blackwell. She was born in Northumberland Co., Va. Her first husband was Mr. Price, by whom she had two daughters viz: Mrs. Elizabeth LeWright and Mrs. Ann Ball. Her second husband was Rev. John Cordell the second. Mrs. Ball was stepgrandmother of Mr. Lucius L. Bates. Mrs. LeWright in 1895 had one living son, Wm. LeWright, in Liberty, Mo. The LeWrights have never been very intimate with the Cordells, owing to some misunderstanding about money. I do not know the trouble. Mr. Price was in those days considered wealthy. After her second marriage to Rev. John Cordell second, they lived in Winchester, Va. where her children were born. After that they moved to Kentucky and lived one year with her sister, Mrs. Col. Churchill, grandmother of the late Col. Sam Churchill, Atty.Gen. of Ky. They moved to Missouri in 1797 which was then under Spanish government and from which he received a Spanish grant of 1200 A's of land-(I, Jennie C.Higgins at the present time own 140 A's of this grant and my great grandfather John Cordell is buried on my place). He being a chaplain in the Rev. War, the D.A.R. put a marker at his grave. I neglected to say both Rev. John Cordell first and second were Episcopal ministers, and my sister, Mrs. Corinne C.Smith, has in her possession John Cordell's prayer book. "

"Upper Louisiana District of St.Louis of the Illinois. Mr. Antoine Soulard, Special Surveyor of the Establishments of Upper Louisiana.

I certify that on the 15th of January of the present year, (by virtue of a previous order of the Honorable Zenon Trudeau as Lieut. Gov. of these Establishments) I went to the land of Mr. John Cordell to make a measurement and survey of it, pursuant to his petition for eigh hundred arpens in area, which survey was made in the presence of the proprietor and his neighbors according to the measure of Paris and the perch of 18 feet following the custom adopted in this Province of Louisiana, (with a magnetic variation of 7 degrees 30 minutes), which is shown on the preceding figurative plan. The land is situated 21 miles West of the village of St.Louis, and is bounded on the North by open lands of the Royal Domain, on the South by land of Isaac Decker, on the East by George Gordon's Grant and on the West by land of John Ward, all of which is shown on the foregoing plat, indicating the dimensions and the natural and artificial boundaries of said land.

John Cordell was appointed Jan. 1, 1777.

John Cordell was captured at Brandywine, Sept. 11, 1777.
